THE “TRUMP SLUMP” IN MASSACHUSETTS TOURISM

STATE REPORT

BUSINESS FORWARD FOUNDATION
International tourism is the United States’ second largest export (after transportation equipment) and accounts for 10% of all U.S. exports.\footnote{1}

Foreign tourists contributed $256 billion to the U.S. economy last year, directly supporting 1.2 million jobs.\footnote{2} In major cities foreign visitors spend four times more than domestic ones.\footnote{3}

80% of travel to the U.S. is for pleasure (not work), which means foreigners who do not feel safe or welcome in the U.S. can switch easily.\footnote{5}

America’s standing in the world has fallen dramatically as a result of Trump’s policies and rhetoric. Global confidence in the U.S. president fell from 55% under Obama to 27% under Trump.\footnote{6} The percent of the world that sees U.S. power as a major threat rose from 25% under Obama to 45% under Trump.\footnote{7}

The global tourism industry is booming, but not in the U.S. As America’s share of the global tourism market falls, the U.S. will lose 14 million visits, $59 billion in income, and 120,000 jobs this year alone.\footnote{8}

Trump’s anti-immigrant and anti-Muslim policies and rhetoric are not the only things hurting U.S. tourism, but they are significant - and completely avoidable.
WHAT THE U.S. TOURISM INDUSTRY IS SAYING

This lucrative market is expanding, yet our country continues to fall behind... I’m not exaggerating when I say that millions of American jobs are at risk if this trend continues.10

- ROGER DOW
PRESIDENT, U.S. TRAVEL ASSOCIATION

[Trump’s travel ban has a] potential dangerous ripple effect... People make (travel) choices based on policies, based on protests of those policies, based on fear. The fallout could be wide-ranging.11

INTERNATIONAL TOURISM IS AMERICA’S SECOND LARGEST EXPORT

International tourism contributes $256 billion to the United States’ economy each year, making it the second largest export (after transportation equipment). Tourism is a job-intensive industry, supporting more jobs per export dollar than exports, on average, and the other top four export sectors.

Exports

International tourism accounts for 10% of all U.S. exports, more than agriculture, aerospace, autos, and pharmaceuticals.

DON’T BLAME ALL OF TOURISM’S DECLINE ON TRUMP. JUST MOST.

“Some combination of Trump’s extreme unpopularity overseas, tougher border and immigration enforcement, and the strong signals being sent by the president that people from certain countries aren’t welcome is causing foreigners to stay away.”²⁵

LOST THIS YEAR? 14 MILLION VISITS, $59 BILLION IN REVENUE, AND 120,000 JOBS

Eighty percent of travel to the U.S. is for pleasure (not work), which means visitors can switch easily to other destinations.\(^{27}\)
One in five U.S. visitors is Mexican.\(^{28}\) When Trump calls Mexicans rapists, Mexican tourists switch their ski vacations from Vail to Vancouver.

The recent drop in America’s share of the global tourism market (2018 vs. 2015) represents 14 million lost visits, $59 billion in lost income, and 120,000 lost jobs this year.\(^{29}\)

As the U.S. Travel Association has noted, that loss is equal to losing 30 auto plants.\(^{30}\)

WILL THE TRADE WAR CUT THE NUMBER OF TOURISTS FROM CHINA?
THE TOURISM INDUSTRY IS WARY

“Boston’s tourism industry works hard to accommodate Chinese tourists... For instance, some businesses have adopted WeChat Pay and Alipay, payment apps that are ubiquitous in China; Boston Duck Tours offers tours translated into Chinese languages... But as trade tensions between China and the United States remain unresolved, some people who count on Chinese spending here are starting to worry.”

As a candidate, Trump argued that “Islam hates us,” and called for a temporary ban on all Muslims entering the U.S. He signed his first travel ban a week after taking office.

In May 2017, a U.S. appeals court ruled 10-3 against one of his revised bans, explaining it “drips with religious intolerance, animus, and discrimination.”

MUSLIMS REPRESENT APPROXIMATELY 1 IN 4 POTENTIAL VISITORS

His travel ban and rhetoric hurt bookings immediately and significantly – and not just among Muslims.

“I am concerned. It’s the tone of it. We have brought millions of Muslims to the United States, but now they may not feel welcome, they may look at going on holiday elsewhere.”
