In today's economy, communities compete with one another to attract new talent and investment. They compete with their schools, workforce, and infrastructure. They also compete with the strength of their community. For years, business leaders have shared a simple, powerful point with their employees, suppliers, customers, and neighbors: We cannot compete if we cannot get along. We need to work together, respect one another, protect one another, and bring out the best in one another.

The 2020 election will be among the most contentious in recent history. It's okay for citizens of good faith to disagree strongly, but we must reject those trying to divide us -- and we must commit ourselves to helping the most vulnerable among us exercise their right to vote.

This Resource Guide features recommendations, best practices, and resources for business owners interested in helping their employees and/or customers vote. We also provide links to dozens of organizations and coalitions that can help.

If you need additional support -- or would like to help Business Forward recruit other businesses, please contact us at info@businessfwd.org.
FIVE THINGS YOU CAN DO

1. HELP YOUR EMPLOYEES REGISTER AND PREPARE TO VOTE.

2. GIVE THEM TIME TO VOTE ON ELECTION DAY.

3. SPEAK OUT ABOUT POLICIES THAT ENCOURAGE VOTING AND MAKE IT EASIER.

4. STAND UP FOR VOTERS MOST LIKELY TO BE SILENCED OR SUPPRESSED.

5. PREPARE YOUR EMPLOYEES FOR EXTENDED BALLOT-COUNTING AND A DELAYED DECISION.
WHY YOUR EMPLOYEES AND CUSTOMERS NEED HELP

1. REGISTRATION IS NOT AUTOMATIC.
   Voters must register before the election in most states (31 out of 50).¹

2. VOTING RULES ARE COMPLICATED.
   ID requirements, registration deadlines, and early voting and absentee voting rules vary by state.

3. VOTING TAKES TIME.
   One in three non-voters say scheduling conflicts with work or school kept them from voting.²

4. VOTING REQUIRES INFORMATION.
   Among young voters in particular, would-be voters are unfamiliar with campaign issues and do not appreciate why their vote matters.

5. VOTING DURING A PANDEMIC CAN BE CONFUSING AND FRIGHTENING.
   Vote-by-mail and early voting will matter more this election.

DID YOU KNOW?

Less than half of eligible voters vote in midterms.³

The U.S. ranks 26th out of 32 developed democracies in voter participation.⁴
FOUR LESSONS FROM FORTUNE 500 CEOS

Hundreds of America’s largest companies encourage and help their employees vote, and many of them are also helping their customers. Here’s what they’ve learned:

HELPING EMPLOYEES VOTE ISN’T “POLITICAL”

500+ companies support ElectionDay.org6

600+ companies support MakeTimeToVote.org7

YOU DON’T NEED TO SPEND A LOT OF TIME OR MONEY TO SUCCED

Awareness is the critical barrier:
short emails, quick reminders, & social media work.

CEO ENGAGEMENT IS KEY

Your support creates a culture of voting.

IT’S GOOD FOR TEAM CULTURE

76% OF EMPLOYEES say that CEOs should take the lead on change rather than waiting for government to impose it (up 11 points from 2019).8

GETTING STARTED

1. HELP YOUR TEAM FIND THE BASICS ON REGISTRATION, EDUCATION, AND WHEN/WHERE/HOW TO VOTE.

   - VOTE.ORG

   - CHECK YOUR REGISTRATION: Not sure if you’re registered to vote? We’ll help you check and register if you can.
   - REGISTER TO VOTE: It takes less than 2 minutes to register.
   - VOTE BY MAIL: Can’t or don’t want to vote in person on Election Day? Request an absentee ballot.
   - POLLING PLACE LOCATOR: Need to find your polling place? View the list of state polling place websites.
   - THE 2020 CENSUS: Your vote counts, and so do you. Fill out your 2020 census form today.

2. FIND A PARTNER THAT FITS YOUR COMPANY’S CULTURE AND YOUR EMPLOYEES’ POINT OF VIEW.

   - #GOVOTE: Artists coming together to make art that encourages people to #GoVote.
   - VOTOLATINO: Encouraging young Hispanic and Latinx voters to register to vote and become more politically involved.
   - REJECT MY VOTE: Linking culture and policy to create a voter mobilization campaign that’s bigger, more diverse, and more powerful.
   - HEADCOUNT.ORG: Works with musicians, labels, and concert promoters.
   - iGNITE: Led by and for Gen Z women.

3. REMEMBER “DOS” AND “DON’TS.”

   - DO: ENCOURAGE EMPLOYEES TO VOTE

   - DON’T: ENCOURAGE THEM TO VOTE FOR A PARTICULAR CANDIDATE.
FOCUS ON EARLY VOTING OPTIONS

Lines are shorter during early voting than on election day. It’s also easier for workers with young children, a second job, or earning a degree. But, chances are, your employees do not know when early voting starts.

Racism, injustice and violence have no place in our society and cannot be tolerated. Yet we continue to be unable to make enough progress in this country - so at this moment it is critical to step back, face the hard subjects and try to reflect.

Far too often, the burden of seeking equality rests on the shoulders of those most marginalized. This simply won’t work. The change we need is broad and deep and requires us all to be active.

First, let me be clear: racism, injustice and intolerance have no home in the Rite Aid organization or in our communities. I do not accept anything other than the notion that diversity and inclusion make us better as a country and as an organization... And while I don’t have the answers, I know the worst thing we can do is stay silent.

POWER THE POLLS
BECOME A POLL WORKER OR POLL WATCHER

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A POLL WORKER VS. POLL WATCHER?

POLL WORKERS are trained by local election boards to identify problems and serve at polling places on Election Day. It’s a nonpartisan role that simply works to ensure a successful election process.

POLL WATCHERS are recruited by political parties to protect people casting their vote. They monitor incidents of voter intimidation and work with voters and election officials to address problems at the polls.

BECOME A POLL WORKER

We are proud to partner with Power The Polls, a new initiative from Work Elections, which is teaming up with businesses and coalitions to promote civic engagement and poll worker recruitment.

Their experience demonstrates there’s higher risk of error or fraud from in-person voting than mail-in voting.\textsuperscript{27}

That’s because voters often show up at the wrong polling location, whereas mailed ballots go to only those who can use them.

In 2016, these five states reported 112 cases of potential fraud – out of 11 million ballots.\textsuperscript{26}

Covid-19 makes crowded polling places dangerous for seniors and those with underlying conditions.

Meanwhile, states rely heavily on seniors to serve as poll workers. With seniors staying away, state polling places will be shorthanded.

PREPARE YOUR EMPLOYEES FOR “ELECTION WEEK”

A CONCLUSIVE OUTCOME ON ELECTION NIGHT IS UNLIKELY

1. Some states will accept ballots postmarked on election day, which means vote totals for some states could take more than a week.

2. On election night, some states count mail-in ballots first; some last. This could affect early vote totals -- but not the final result.

3. Setting expectations early will encourage patience and help your employees manage anxiety.
